CORAM : R.M. SAVANT, J.

DATE : 18TH MAY, 2007.
(VACATION COURT)

P.C.

. This is an application for temporary bail on medical grounds. The applicant has been convicted for the offence punishable under section 302 of the Indian Penal Code by the 2nd Additional Sessions Judge, Kolhapur vide Judgment and order passed in the year 1994. Said conviction has been confirmed by this Court on 14/12/2004. The petitioner pursuant to the said conviction was taken into custody.

2. The petitioner was released on parole vide order dated 22/8/2005 on account of sickness of his mother, who was suffering from cardiac problem. Intitially parole was granted for a period of 30 days and later on for a further period of 30 days and 15 days respectively till 23/11/2005. It is the case of the applicant that the son of the applicant is also unwell and has been advised open heart surgery. The applicant also contends that he is HIV positive and was admitted in the Jail hospital in January 2007, as he was having pain in different parts of body.

3. In my view, no case for grant of temporary bail is made out. However, the authorities would take appropriate steps for medical examination of the applicant, as well as for medical treatment if needed thereafter in the jail hospital or in the government hospital, as they deem appropriate. The application is accordingly disposed off.
